Acclaimed Musician Mark Herman to Perform on Temple's Historic Barton Pipe Organ

SAGINAW, MI — On Sunday, November 8th, 2009, celebrated organist Mark Herman will bring the pipes of the Temple Theatre's 82-year-old Golden-Voiced Barton Pipe Organ to life. The promising young musician has been studying piano since the age of seven, with his first introduction to the theatre organ in the fourth grade. At just 21 years old, Mark Herman has already reached amazing musical milestones, winning prestigious competitions like the ATOS Young Theatre Organist Competition in Milwaukee.

Word of the 21-year-old Fort Wayne native's outstanding gift for music has already spread from coast to coast. However, Mark's sheer talent isn't just catching on here in the United States. He has toured in both Australia and New Zealand, selling record-breaking amounts of CDs at many of his performances and delighting international audiences with his exquisite skill. Mark Herman currently resides in Chicago, where he attends DePaul University to study Theatre Arts and Theatre Management.

Join us at the Temple Theatre on Sunday, November 8th at 3pm for an afternoon of captivating music and raw talent, as budding organist Mark Herman masters the theatre's historic Barton Pipe Organ. Tickets are $10 and are on sale now for Marquee Club Members. Tickets will go on sale to the general public beginning July 17th. Call (989) 754-SHOW today, visit the Temple Theatre Box Office, or go online at www.templetheatre.com to reserve your seats.

The Temple Theatre is located at 203 N. Washington Ave. in Saginaw. Box-office hours are Monday - Friday 8am to 6pm and Saturday 9am – 5pm. As always, there will be free parking and shuttle service from the Saginaw Tower, 515 N. Washington, two blocks north of the Temple.
